9. ☐ Other _____

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The rejection of claims 1-3 under 35 USC 102(e) is hereby withdrawn subsequent to applicants' submission of 1.132 Declaration. Rejection of claim 4 under 35 USC 101 is moot in view of the amendment. Claims 1-7 are thus patentable over prior art of record. Zhang et al(Bioorganic & Medicinal Chemistry Letters, 2003) is another art that teaches instant claims but was published on 1/20/2003, and the instant claims have priority of 1/10/2003. Nakazato et al(US 6,333,358) is another prior art of relevance which teach structurally similar compounds as claimed herein, see for example, various examples in Table 1, starting from column 17-18 upto columns 25-26. The difference between the reference and herein claimed compounds is that the reference never has haloalkyl substituted group in Ar1, whereas, in herein, R3 is always halo substituted alkyl. There is no motivation to arrive at the claimed compounds using the prior art and hence instant claims are patentable.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
